Canyon Schools Are Ready for Opening

Joe A. Gibson, superintendent of the Canyon Independent School District, said last week that the building program is weeks ahead of schedule and that the new elementary school would be completed by December 1. About December 1, the new science and homemaker department and gymnasium at high school will be completed.

Upon completion of the building program all elementary age children in Canyon will move with their teachers into the new school building. Children who are enrolled in West Texas Elementary School, except the second grade students of Mrs. J. B. Roberts and fourth grade students of Mrs. A. B. Holt will move into the new elementary school building. Enrollment changes have changed teacher assignments. New assignments are:

First grade; Canyon Elementary Mrs. Mary Black, Mrs. T. W. Collins, Mrs. Sidney Burgess, and at West Texas Elementary School, Miss Mae Simmons.

Second grade; Canyon Elementary School: Mrs. Roscoe Davis, Mrs. Betty Howard, Mrs. Alma Perkins, and at West Texas Elementary School, Mrs. Lee Reeves and Mrs. J. B. Roberts, until completion of the new building.

Third grade; Canyon Elementary School: Mrs. A. K. Goodman, Mrs. Zula Usery, and at West Texas Elementary School, Miss Earline Moreman.

Fourth grade; Canyon Elementary School: Mrs. Isabelle Cousins, Mrs. Huvelle Brasher and West Texas Elementary School, Miss Sarah Thompson and Mrs. A. B. Holt until completion of new building.

Fifth grade; Canyon Elementary School: Mrs. Audrey Jones, Mrs. Hazel Walsh, Mrs. R. D. Wheelock, and West Texas Elementary School, L. B. Penick.

Sixth grade; Canyon Elementary School: Luther Lawless and Mrs. Veal Iverson, and West Texas Elementary School, Miss Jean Moore.

This program leaves one section of grades 1 through 6 at West Texas Elementary School.

All 7th and 8th grade students will enroll at West Texas Elementary School as in the past and remain there until the new building is completed. They are to report to the auditorium of West Texas Elementary School at 9:00 a. m. Tuesday, August 31, for enrollment instruction.

Four Grads Will Be Commissioned In the US Army

When commencement exercises are held Friday night at West Texas State College, a "first" in the college's history will be marked. Four men, along with their Bachelor of Science degrees, will receive commissions in the United States Army.

The four are the first cadets to complete military training and become eligible for commissions as second lieutenants since the West Texas State Reserve Officers' Training Corps unit was established here in September 1952. They were among the seven cadets with sufficient ROTC credit to enroll in an advanced course. They attended a required summer camp in July 1953.

One man, Albert F. Linger of Vega, a "Distinguished Military Student," will receive a direct commission in artillery in the regular army. Weims L. Norman, Dougherty, and LeMoin Patrick, Borger, also "Distinguished Military Students," and Donald R. Perry, Haskell, will be commissioned as second lieutenants in the army reserve.

Col. Raymond H. Lumry, professor of military science and tactics, will swear the men into the service, and President James P. Cornette will present them their commissions.

Linger will leave Saturday for Fort Sill, where he will attend a basic officers course for 17 weeks at the Artillery School. For a month he will attend a paratroop course at Fort Benning, Ga., before being given a permanent assignment. New regular army officers are required to attend the paratroop school or take Ranger training.

The other three men will await orders from the Texas Military District to be assigned duty. Norman and Patrick, who have selected the infantry as their branch of service, will attend a basic officers course at Fort Benning, and Perry will attend an artillery school at Fort Sill. Perry, who completed work for his college degree last spring, is being commissioned this summer because of an inadvertent delay, Col. Lumry said.

For enrollment this year each child should report to the same building he or she was in last year. Enrollment for grades 1 through 6 is to be Tuesday, August 31, from 9:00 a. m. until 4:00 p. m. If the child is entering school for the first time, remember that there are three sections of the first grade, two at elementary school, and one at West Texas Elementary School. It is hoped that parents' desires will balance the sections but if it doesn't, authorities will have to equalize the section load.

High school students will register August 30 and 31. Seniors will enroll Monday, August 31, from 10 a. m. until 12 noon; juniors register from 1 until 4 p. m., and on August 31, sophomores will enroll from 9:00 a. m. until 12 noon and freshmen from 1 until 4.

Anyone having a question regarding enrollment should call the superintendent's office. Gibson added that buses will not run on enrollment days but will make their first regular run Wednesday, September 1. Shuttle bus service will continue as in the past between the buildings.

Collect $1,876 For Emergency Polio Fund Here

A total of $1,876 was collected during the special polio fund drive here. Joe A. Gibson, director of Randall county's emergency fund drive said Saturday, "If every community responds to the drive as Canyon has it will be a huge success." Various civic organizations joined in the drive for funds. Lions and Rotary clubs of Canyon sponsored the drive and were aided by the churches of Canyon and Umbarger.

The women of the churches of these two communities made the ice cream which was given away. The cream was free but it was a softening up process for the contribution and it worked. George Blackwell, one of the committee workers for the drive, said that Friday's contributions amounted to $260.33 while Saturday's contributions climbed to $454.

The $1,876 total of the drive was the total of the two days of contributions, the contributions which had been sent in by direct mail, and the contributions made at the hospital and clinic the day gamma globulin shots were given.

Joint Lions-Rotary club committee was made up of Don Standley, Raymond Raillard, Dr. Dudley Moore, Dr. Emmitt Smith, Rex Reeves, Truitt McGregor, Jack Haley, Bill R. Lee, and George Blackwell.

George Blackwell is city chairman of the polio drive; Don Standley is treasurer, and Dr. R. P. Jarrett is permanent county chairman.

Wheat Crop For 1954 Will Go To 1,600,000 Bushels Estimate

Over a million bushels of Randall county wheat has been placed under the price support loans through the Randall County A. S. C. office up to August 11.

An estimate made by W. H. Upchurch, county office manager for the A. S. C., indicates a total wheat production for the 1954 crop of about 1,600,000 bushels.

This figure for the total crop indicates about 10 bushels per acre for the acreage which was seeded for harvest or about 11 bushels per acre for the acreage actually harvested.

Most farmers consider this a pretty fair wheat crop considering that Randall county had a severe drought during the past winter and early spring. Also in view of the fact that about 50 farms in the county lost substantially all of their wheat crop from wind erosion and the county was visited by several destructive hail storms.

BOYCE HOUSE

Bill Longley was hanged three times—and some folks believe that he survived all three.

Longley lived by virtue of his skill with the sixshooters in the stormy days of Reconstructions and there are various figures as to how many men he killed, but the figures are all large.

The first time he was hanged was when he happened to be riding with a gang of thieves and killers when they were overtaken by a posse. Longley was strung up with his companions. As the posse was riding away, one member turned and fired a volley. A bullet hit the rope from which Longley dangled and, soon after, the weakened strand gave way.

When Longley was sentenced to hang for murder in Texas, the rope broke and he had to be dropped a second time. So he was hanged three times.

There were some who said that he had been rigged up with a special contraption of leather and did not die but was hurried away by friends and was resuscitated.

Long-haired Jim Courtright was a renowned wielder of the six-gun.

Courtright, who was marshal of Fort Worth in the 1880's, could shoot equally well with either hand. He was a master of the "border shift," a maneuver where, in the gunfighter draw, fired, tossed the pistol in the air, caught it with the other hand and resumed firing.

Courtright and Luke Short shot it out one day in Fort Worth. Short's first bullet struck Courtright's right thumb and he attempted the border shift but while his pistol was in the air, Short's next shot proved fatal.

The greatest amount of loot ever obtained in a robbery in the world was $2,000,000 in the holdup of a train at Rondout, Ill. Five took part in the holdup—and three were from Texas. They were brothers.

FIRE HAZARD REPAIRED, BURNS

Cashoeton, Ohio. — When the county fair grandstand was condemned as a fire hazard, worried fair officials ordered a $7,000 repair job. The job was just about finished when some paint thinner exploded. The 100-year-old structure burned to the ground, causing an estimated $50,000 loss.

RECORD HOME BUILDING

The Government predicts that, on the basis of a new jump in the already booming home-building industry, 1954 production of homes and apartment units placed under construction in June totaled 120,000, a 12 per cent rise over May, according to the Bureau of Labor Statistics.

Latest Rumors From Political Front of Nation

Sherman Adams, top aide to the President, was a bit startled by the dressing down Mr. Eisenhower gave him before reporters for saying that Ike was turning over in his mind a decision on whether or not to run in 1956. The President said bluntly that Mr. Adams had no facts on which to base his statement.

Mr. Eisenhower, cracking down on those who raise a question about the decision he will make on a second term, is giving an indication that he is beginning to like his job. It has taken Ike almost two years to get a thrill out of politics.

Estes Kefauver, Tennessee Senator, winning renomination by a landslide, is going to be a strong contender for the Democratic nomination in 1956.

Ezra Benson, Secretary of Agriculture, is being pressed to interment himself in the question of why city people pay as much for food as when farm prices were much higher. Some Republicans from farm States are concerned that farmers may think that the Republican Party is most interested in getting farm prices down, not in lowering prices of food for city people.

Dr. Otto John, the head of Germany's "FBI" who turned out to be an agent of the Communists, had been used by the British to kill off the idea of rearming Germany. Dr. John fed out stories about Nazis rising again to take over in West Germany—stories given a big play in British newspapers.

Under auspices of this country's Central Intelligence Agency, Dr. John spent the time from May 19 to June 10 in this country, traveling from coast to coast. The man who jumped openly over to the Communist side on July 20 had spent half a day at the FBI out of four days in Washington. Great secrecy surrounds what U. S. secrets, if any, American officials gave to the Communist agent.

John Foster Dulles, Secretary of State, is not particularly happy over the way this country's allies are taking the initiative in foreign affairs and are following lines that this country does not approve. Although it spends more money on other countries than ever before, the United States finds its influence declining.

The U. S. Joint Chiefs of Staff are pressing for clear-cut authority to make immediate use of atomic and thermonuclear weapons in event of another war. Military men are concerned lest politicians deny them the right to use their new weapons, thereby giving an advantage to nations with larger manpower.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS: Section 1. Article III of the Constitution of the State of Texas shall be hereby amended by adding thereto a new section to be known as Section 51-b and reading as follows:

"Section 51-b. (a) The State Building Commission is hereby created. Its membership shall consist of the Governor, the Attorney General and the Chairman of the Board of Control. The Legislature may provide by law for some other State official to be a member of this Commission in lieu of the Chairman of the Board of Control, and in the event said State official has not already been confirmed by the Senate as such State official he shall be so confirmed as a member of the State Building Commission in the same manner that other State officials are confirmed.

"(b) The State Building Fund is hereby created. On or before the first day of January following the adoption of this amendment, and each year thereafter, the Comptroller of Public Accounts shall certify to the State Treasurer the amount of money necessary to pay Confederate pensions for the ensuing calendar year as provided by the constitution and laws of this State. Thereupon each year the State Treasurer shall transfer forthwith from the Confederate Pension Fund to the State Building Fund all money except that needed to pay the Confederate pensions as certified by the Comptroller. This provision is self-enacting. The State Building Fund shall be expended by the Commission upon appropriation by the Legislature for the uses and purposes set forth in subdivision (c) hereof.

"(c) Under such terms and conditions as are now or may be hereafter provided by law, the Commission may acquire necessary real and personal property, salvage and dispose of property unsuitable for State purposes, modernize, remodel, build State purposes, and make contracts necessary to carry out and effectuate the purposes herein mentioned.

"The first major structure erected from the State Building Fund shall be known and designated as a memorial to the Texans who served in the Armed Forces of the Confederate States of America, and shall be devoted to the use and occupancy of the Supreme Court and such other courts and State agencies as may be provided by law. The second major structure erected from the State Building Fund shall be a State office building and shall be used by whatever State agencies as may be provided by law.

"Under such terms and conditions as are now or may be hereafter provided by law, the State Building Commission may expend not exceeding five (5%) percent of the moneys available to it in any one year, for the purpose of erecting memorials to the Texans who served in the Armed Forces of the Confederate States of America. Said memorials may be upon battlefields or other suitable places within or without the boundaries of this State. The authorization for expenditures for memorials herein mentioned shall cease as of December 31, 1965.

"Under such terms and conditions as are now or may be hereafter provided by law, the State Building Commission may expend not exceeding Thirty Thousand ($30,000.00) Dollars in the aggregate for the purpose of erecting memorials to the Texans who served in the Armed Forces of the Republic in the Texas War for Independence. Said memorials may be erected upon battlefields, in cemeteries, or other suitable places within or without the boundaries of this State. The authorization for expenditures for memorials herein mentioned shall cease as of December 31, 1965.

"(e) Should the 53rd Legislature enact a law or laws in anticipation of the adoption of this amendment, such shall not be invalid by reason of their anticipatory character."

Section 2. The foregoing amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of Texas as the general election to be held throughout the State on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1954, at which election those favoring such amendment shall have printed or written on their ballot the following:

Travelers Home From Long Trip To Eastern USA

(Editor's Note: Some 70 West Texas State geography students have been making a 25-day tour of the eastern part of the United States and Canada. A publicity committee has written this account of their travels.)

In New York City a Gray Line bus picked us up at our hotel for a sightseeing trip through the city. This great city is built on a foundation of solid stone. Viewing the financial district, Civic Center and Hudson River piers and the Bowery, we also stopped in China Town and the Battery for a view of the Statue of Liberty, New York harbor and a peep at the skyline of the city. We had lunch at the famous Jack Dempsey Restaurant. Afterward we visited Rockefeller Center and drove up Fifth Avenue's fashionable shopping district, Millionaire's Row, where we saw many magnificent and beautiful homes, and along Riverside Drive where we visited Grant's Tomb and Columbia University.

We visited the Cathedral of St. John the Divine, most magnificent building in the country. It has been in the process of construction for more than a half century. They are building on the pay-as-you-go plan and as they have the money they will complete another part of the building. The engineers who planned this building have done a wonderful job.

We made a complete tour of the United Nations building, which is one of the newest and most modern of all buildings. The following day we had a three hour cruise around Manhattan Island, viewing all the places we had seen the day before from the boat as well as many that we had not observed before.

Early July 28 we left the largest city in the United States for a drive to Boston. The route was over a congested area devoted to the manufacturing of many articles used in every day life. We skirted Long Island Sound and crossed the beautiful Connecticut River, which aids in their shipping and manufacturing. The country here gave much evidence of glaciation. Farming was limited due to glaciation refuse. Small tilled patches were noted, also many poultry farms. In crossing Rhode Island, which is entirely industrial, we were amazed by their architecture in various buildings. A few poultry farms were seen.

In the Great Bay State of Massachusetts, we were still finding evidence of glaciation in top soil, rivers, rocks and lakes. Massachusetts is industrial, too, with many manufacturing plants, processing wood, leather, woolen and cotton products.

We had a guided tour of the city, visiting many historical places such as Paul Revere's Home, Old North Church, site of Boston Massacre, Boston Tea Party, Bunker Hill, and the Navy yard where we had the privilege of exploring "Old Ironsides." We discovered that all the swamps and lowlands in and around Boston had been filled in to the extent that 75% of the city is on filled in land. We visited Cambridge, the seat of Harvard University, and Radcliff College. We also toured the home of Henry Wadsworth Longfellow, and viewed the site of the Old Elm where Washington took command of the Army in 1775.

We drove out to the Henry Ford Foundation—at Sudbury—where we saw the Little Red School House, where Mary and her little lamb went to school. The building was used until 1952. The Old Water Mill was next. We returned to our hotel in Boston tired but happy, for we had spent the entire day in and around this old historic city where much of our early history had really happened.

On July 31 we went through New Hampshire and admired the beautiful flowers and green grass. We made a stop at Hampton Beach where we enjoyed wading and swimming in the Atlantic Ocean. A main feature there was the salt water taffy candy we bought in the stores. We arrived in Portland, Maine's largest city, during mid-afternoon.

The sun was shining when we checked into the hotel, but in just a few minutes a fierce wind storm blew in. Rain and hard winds caused a great amount of damage to Portland and the surrounding area. We saw big trees blown to the ground, windows broken out, and awnings ripped from store windows. The radio told us that it was the nearest thing to a hurricane they had had there in years.

We enjoyed the largest of the New England states, with its rock-bound coastline, anyway. We saw many of its tall pine trees.

Sunday, Aug. 1, we journeyed across New Hampshire again. In the morning we stopped to view the "Old Man of the Mountains—The Great Stone Face" at Franconia Notch, N. H. This profile, which measures 48 feet from forehead to chin, was formed during the Ice Age. We passed the site of a major hydro-electric station now under construction on the Connecticut River near Littleton, where we ate lunch. We spent the night in St. Johnsbury, VT.

There we found Vermont's famous maple syrup. We learned that 40 per cent of the maple syrup of our country is from this "Green Mountain State." Other industries we saw were dairying and subsistence farming. This state also has the largest asbestos plants in the United States.

Monday we started to Quebec, Quebec in Canada. Our bus stopped for a quick check at the border before we drove into our neighboring country. There we were surprised to find so many French speaking people. We have had quite a time making them understand what we want.

(From Quebec, the group went to Montreal, then to Kingston, Ontario, and on to Niagara Falls. After a night on the Canadian side of the falls, the tourists journeyed to Detroit, Peoria, Ill., Lincoln, Neb., and back to Canyon. The first bus arrived home Tuesday night, and the second bus is due home tonight.)

"AGAINST the Amendment to the Constitution giving the Legislature the power to set up a system of payments of old age assistance to those above sixty-five (65) years of age; provided that monthly payments from State funds to any one person may be in valid amounts based on need, that the maximum payment per month per person from the State funds shall not be more than Twenty ($20.00) Dollars per month; giving the Legislature the power to set up a system of payments for the needy blind persons over twenty-one (21) years of age; giving the Legislature the power to set up a system of payments to the needy children under sixteen (16) years of age; providing for the expenditure of funds from the Federal government; limiting the total amount which may be expended for such assistance out of State funds; and providing conditions as to residence within the State in order to become eligible to receive assistance."

Section 3. The Governor of the State of Texas is hereby directed to issue the necessary proclamation for said election and have the same published and held as required by the Constitution and the laws of the State of Texas.

There Must Be A Reason...

WHY

the neighbors of Ralph Yarborough voted 3 to 1 for Allan Shivers, in the July 24 Primary!

the out-of-state controlled C. I. O. groups shunned Allan Shivers at the Polls!

WHY

Duval County and the Parr Regime voted 2 to 1 against Allan Shivers.

YES! There IS a Reason!

THE PEOPLE who live as Neighbors to Allan Shivers' opponent, and the people who know him best, went to the Polls on July 24 and voted 3 to 1 for Allan Shivers. The folks who know Yarborough best knew he has a habit — a long, well-established habit — of turning his back on his friends when he gets what he wants from them.

THE OUT-OF-STATE CONTROLLED C. I. O. groups voted against Allan Shivers because they knew that Allan Shivers would fight to keep out-of-state interests from controlling Texas. This support for Allan Shivers' opponent shows that Allan Shivers has told the TRUTH ABOUT WHO IS SUPPORTING RALPH YARBOROUGH.

THE DUVAL COUNTY and George Parr Regime voted against Allan Shivers because Governor Shivers and the Attorney General are directly responsible for the CLEAN-UP in DUVAL COUNTY.

Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Fetzner of Falls City, Neb., are spending the week-end with Mrs. Fetzner's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Oberst, Sr.

Mr. and Mrs. John Schramm left Saturday for Flagstaff, Ariz., after having spent last week with Mrs. Schramm's mother and brother, Mrs. W. G. Rose and Kelly.

Mr. and Mrs. Royal Brantley and children left Sunday afternoon for Austin where they are visiting in the home of his mother for two weeks.

French Visitor Talked Tuesday at Canyon Rotary Club

Pierre Jacquet, French student, who has been a visitor of the Canyon Rotary Club for five weeks, talked on his impressions of the Panhandle Tuesday.

The greatest handicaps which he had met were erosion and drought. Waste land in the Panhandle appealed to him. He gave as an example the way the French had farmed in North Africa.

Pierre speaks broken English, but understands the language well. He was impressed by the wonderful hospitality which had confronted him on every hand. "I should like to live in Canyon," was his remark.

Due to his limited command of the English language, he chose to answer questions rather than make a speech. The French people are about 50% for the EDC was his first statement. The farmers of France are largely opposed to the plan.

Most of the farm machinery comes from America and is pooled. The government supports a farm program. It takes about 10 times as much fertilizer in France as in this country, due to the newness of the Panhandle lands. Rainfall in Paris amounts to about 25 inches per year. About half of the land is leased by farmers, with the maximum farm running about 125 acres, producing on the average of 34 bushels of wheat.

The church owns no land. There is some irrigation, but conservation is generally practiced. The Marshall Plan greatly assisted France, and none of the money was wasted.

Pierre was questioned about cattle raised in France, but he preferred horse steak.

Raymond Raillard thanked members of the Club for their interest in assisting with the polio drive.

Visitors were: A. K. Knott, Mrs. T. V. Reeves, city; Ben Buecker of Umbarger; Bill Dixon of Pampa; O. D. Ferguson of Dalhart; Geo. A. Farlow of Midland; Carl Knight, Gene Keeler, Edgar Wilson, Wayne A. Clark, Tom Cartwright, Thurman Whittis, Standley Butcher, J. H. Harrison, Allen Early, Jr., all of Amarillo.

Dr. and Mrs. Robert P. Jarrett, Beth and Pat, drove to Kerrville to bring back their two daughters, Jane and Ann, who have been in Kamp Kickapoo. Jane and Ann said they had a wonderful time.

G. B. Heath was able to be down at his office Monday for the first time since his accident. He drove his car, but did not attempt to stay long.

R. A. Smith attended the Gloria Baptist Assembly in Santa Fe, N. M., last week.

Peabody Exes To Hold Dinner Here

A dinner for ex-students of George Peabody College for Teachers will be held Friday at 6 p. m. at the cafeteria at West Texas State College, with the president of the Nashville, Tenn., institution as special guest. Alumni of the college throughout West Texas are invited to attend.

Dr. Henry H. Hill, president of George Peabody College, will be in Canyon Friday to deliver the commencement address for the summer graduates of WT. The dinner will be an informal get-together for exes of the college to meet and talk with Dr. Hill.

Dr. James L. Russell, WT graduate dean, is handling arrangements. George Peabody exes who plan to attend the dinner are asked to notify Dr. Russell as soon as possible. The affair will be in the Blue Room of the cafeteria.

Graduates and ex-students of George Peabody among the WT faculty are Dr. Russell, Dr. James P. Cornette, WT president; Dr. J. B. Roberts, education department head; Joe H. Bailey, librarian; Alfred G. Kieselbach, associate professor of art; Dr. Murry B. Measmer, geography department head; M. J. Newman, music department head, and William O. Latson, assistant professor of music.

Minerals Shown at Museum With Light

A sample display of fluorescent minerals from the large collection of Floyd V. Studer, Amarillo insurance man and curator of archaeology, is on temporary exhibit at the Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum.

The minerals, which are in a case under a "long-wave" ultra violet light, are being shown temporarily until a larger permanent exhibit of Studer's fluorescent collection is completed. Those being shown are those which react only to a long-wave light, according to Jack T. Hughes, curator of paleontology.

"Fluorescent minerals give off beautiful colors, each with its own peculiar color and light, when excited by special types of radiations," Hughes said. "These displays are always very popular with the public because of the beautiful glow of the minerals."

Hughes said that many prospectors use the ultra violet light to locate particular minerals which react to the light in a characteristic manner, making them easily identifiable.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Seymour of Alliance, Neb., visited last week in the G. L. Davis home. Mr. Seymour left Monday to return home. Mrs. Seymour will remain for a longer visit.

Marie Cooper on Official Committee

When Marie Cooper attended the National Hair Stylist Convention in California she took the examination for the Official Hair Fashion Committee on July 11. She has received word that she passed the examination.

On August 29th she will be installed as an official member of this the highest ranking committee of hair stylists in the nation. The installation ceremony will be in New York City.

As a member of the committee Marie will be guest artist to demonstrate new styles and trims at local unit meetings wherever she is called. She will meet with the national committee at the national conventions to assist in a workshop at which time they will work out and set up new styles and trims for the season that is coming up.

When Mrs. Cooper took the examination in California there were seven stylists from different sections of the nation taking the test. Of the seven only three passed and the three were from Texas. Passing with Mrs. Cooper were Buddy Hall of Bowie and Chester Martin of Amarillo.

Formby Expressed Concern Political Promises in Race

Marshall Formby of Plainview, member of the Texas Highway Commission, today expressed deep concern that Ralph Yarborough, candidate for Governor, is reported promising roads and bridges in parts of Texas, in an effort to garner votes.

Formby is a Plainview attorney and owns interest in several West Texas radio stations. He was appointed to the Commission by Governor Allan Shivers in February, 1953.

Formby said that Yarborough's recent promise to build a $5,000,000 highway and bridge in Galveston county and along the Gulf Coast, if he were elected Governor, is an example of political promises that would eventually harm the fine Highway department in Texas. His full statement follows:

"I am deeply disturbed when I hear of the dozens of promises that Mr. Yarborough is making to the people offering to build new roads and bridges in various parts of the state."

"For more than a quarter of a century the Highway Department has been completely free of political road and bridge building. The Texas Highway Department has built roads and bridges based strictly on merit and need."

"Texans everywhere take great pride in the Highway Department, stressing the fact that there are no politics in it, and for the good of all Texas I sincerely hope that they can continue to have that pride."

"The present Commission has not spent one dime on a political road or bridge since I have been a member, and I know that the three members would never vote 15 cents to fulfill any political obligation."

"I have been a member of the Commission for 18 months and during this year and a half Governor Shivers has never once requested me to spend one dime on any particular road or bridge, but has insisted to me that every expenditure be based strictly on need and merit so far as the money would go."

"To my mind, that is the only way a highway department can be run." Texans must see that this condition continues to prevail."

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Knighton and daughter, Genie, spent the weekend in Lubbock visiting with Mrs. Knighton's twin brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Sharpley. Grandfather and grandmother Knighton stayed in the Bill Knighton home and cared for their grandson and granddaughter, Neil and Cathy, while Bill and Betty were away.

Mrs. C. L. Thompson and Bill Black are in Chicago this week attending the furniture market for Thompson's. Mrs. Thompson will go on to New York to visit her new grandson, who was recently born to Mr. and Mrs. Tommie Thompson.

Mrs. James P. Cornette had the misfortune to fall, breaking a bone in her foot. It is in a cast and will be for two months, according to her doctor. Mrs. Cornette says she is getting around with crutches and is doing fine.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Farlow were in Canyon over the week-end but leave today for their home in Midland where Mr. Farlow is in business with George Vineyard. They have been on a vacation trip to Colorado.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Thomas and Jeaniene returned Sunday after having spent a vacation in Colorado and New Mexico where they attended the Inter-tribal Ceremonial at Gallup.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Samples returned home Saturday after having spent last week in Corpus Christi, Alice, and Austin.

Jeff Wallace of Albany was here for a few days this week assisting the Heath-Lawless firm with book work.

Just Between You, Me . . . and the Gatepost

By Lawrence Hunnicutt

Forrest Gruner said last week that some of the maize was helped by the Saturday night, August 7, rain and also that some of it was not helped much. The early maize was a little too far along to be helped. If you drove about the country the following morning, Sunday, August 8, you probably noticed the fresh green of all the crops. It was sure nice to see maize leaves that had been wilted for days become fresh and green again.

This is not exactly for the birds although we'll have to say, "a little bird told me," to repeat it. It concerns an elopement or something highly similar to an elopement. The birdie said somebody tried to elope and in crawling out of her window cut her foot. Can't mention any names here but for further information visit the Canyon Drug.

Sad news also came to people of this area last week who knew Edgar Brasch of Levelland. The news of his death came as a shock to his friends here and throughout the tri-state area. Mr. Brasch was president of the Tri-State Hardware & Implement Association. In this capacity he made many friends not only in the Panhandle and the State of Texas but throughout the entire United States. He was a man who did a great many things for the society in which he lived and left his community better because of his accomplishments.

Those of you who didn't see the movie, "Francis Joins the WAC's," last week really missed something. W. J. Wooten and Charles Donnell have been trying to bring the best pictures to the Canyon people and in spite of the difficulty in obtaining good pictures they have kept a good program for the movie going public.

Only ten more days left for politicians to do their election mud slinging. After next Saturday we're all going to know what the other members of the public think about the two candidates who are tussling for the governor's chair. In the event you drink a toast to the occasion you could very appropriately begin it with, "Here's to mud in your eye."

A lot of people, both in Canyon and Amarillo, are still in a quandary about our house numbering system. Several times during the recent past we have almost gotten goods being delivered to Dr. Emmitt Smith's residence because of the house numbering system here. Dr. Smith, like many others in town, received a card from the city that his house number was a certain number. In his case the number happened to be 2619, formerly the people in that block had started their numbering with 27—instead of 26. If someone is making a delivery to Dr. Smith and they don't know exactly where he lives they look in the telephone directory and it says 2715. This misses his house about a block. This situation should be cleared up before the next telephone directories are out or we will have to go through another year of mistaken house numbers and having visitors believe we're not capable of growing up as a city.

The strange paradox of our times was reflected in a story we heard last week. The story was about Joe Friday who plugs Chevrolet cars on the radio show "Dragnet" and the paradox was that Friday answers all his calls in a Ford. Might be able to kick that around a little and get something like, "Don't bite the hand that's feeding you" or something.

Famous last words by a drinking driver, "My car is so smart it can go home by itself."

Headaches in Indochina Are Not Solved by Truce Is the Report

WASHINGTON: The truce in Indochina calls for a reappraisal of the world outlook, for it stops the fighting in parts of the world, for the first time in years. The truce came at a time when a top-level NATO study was being completed on the outlook for war, and the kind of war likely to be waged, if there is a new one.

Both the NATO and Washington appraisals agree that the best chance for war will come between five and ten years from now. It is pretty evident now that both the Russian Communists and the Chinese put pressure on Red forces in Vietnam to sign a truce.

Moreover, it is evident that the Vietnamese are disgusted with terms of the truce. They think they had the French on the run in Vietnam and that they could have won much more territory in another year of fighting than the truce terms give them. And that may not be far wrong.

But the Russians, and Chinese, are looking to the future and apparently believe that they have ample natural and human resources to develop in the next decade to put them in a good position to challenge the new-greater military power of the democracies.

The recent nine-months study made by NATO experts on the prospect for war—and the kind of war the next one will be—puts great emphasis on the probability that the next war will be an atomic one. This is contrary to the opinions now being expressed by some that neither side will dare be the first to use atomic weapons, and that future wars may be fought out on more conventional lines.

The study is also reported to have reached the conclusion that the great cities of the democracies will not necessarily be the first targets of enemy atomic bombs. This sheds a new light on the atomic defense plans of the United States, for example, which have assumed that industrial areas will be the first targets of Communist atomic bombs in any war with the Reds.

The new study is nothing more than a study (although reportedly the most thorough investigation into a new war's probable effects yet made) and cannot be accepted as foolproof. It must be considered, however, by defense chiefs and its conclusions arouse some vital questions.

One of the questions raised by the report is the question of size of existing U. S. armed forces. If the climax of the next war is to come in the opening phase, and not in the closing phases, as has been the case in the last two world wars, U. S. defense plans may need to be revised.

The strength of air defense also comes in for new review and the development of new weapons comes into heavy prominence.

While the present world outlook seems to give the United States a probable breathing space for five or more years, the actual danger to be faced will be greater at the end of this period than it is today. The tremendous potential of China will begin to even the balance of power more and more as the Chinese develop heavy industry, aircraft factories and train their armies in the use of the latest weapons.

Senate Has Set a Torrid Pace in The Final Days of the Session

By HARRY DENT
Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON: If your United States Senator looks a little baggy around the eyes the next time you see him it will probably be because he has been putting in a real day's work on Capitol Hill during the past few weeks.

During the final days before adjournment, the members of the U. S. Senate are demonstrating once again that touch of genius for getting legislation through in a rush. To accomplish this acceleration in legislative work, they have been working from early in the mornings until late at night. In fact, during the recent 13-day filibuster over the President's atomic energy control bill, they stayed in session around the clock during the period except for a brief Sunday recess. This continuous session was a part of Senate Majority leader William Knowland's plan to break the talkathon being waged by opponents of the President's bill.

Even after the filibuster was over, the Senators were still meeting at nine and ten in the mornings and recessing late at night in order to complete their work by the middle of August, and have plenty of time to campaign before November.

From the beginning of the session until shortly before the filibuster broke loose last month, the Senators convened on the floor at 12 noon and generally recessed around 5 p. m. In the mornings they attended committee meetings or attended to other chores.

Over in the House, the pace has not been as torrid during the past few weeks because that larger body is again ahead of the Senate in its work. In fact, the House would have been ready for adjournment July 31, the date set last year by Congress as the final legislative day to shoot toward, had the Senators not dragged their feet so long during the early days of session.

Prolonged debate over constitutional amendments and other matters that did not reach the House this year have accounted for some of the Senate delay.

Then, too, the House debate timing, etc., is fixed by the House Rules Committee before the bill reaches the floor and is strictly adhered to. In the Senate, however, debate can only be limited by unanimous consent agreement or invoking the cloture rule, which requires 64 of the 96 votes. And each Senator, with some prestige attached to his office, must generally have his say on most every issue for the Congressional Record.

Signs of Life Will Save Many Lives—Tilley

"Signs of life can reduce traffic accidents and save many lives," Col. E. B. Tilley of Houston, president of the Texas Safety Association, said.

"That is the reason," he said, "his group is actively conducting the 'Signs of Life' traffic safety program in Texas this month in cooperation with the Texas Department of Public Safety, and the National Safety Council."

"The traffic signs, signals and pavement markings called signs of life are designed to regulate, guide and protect us," he said.

"If we follow them with respect and courtesy, very often they will save us from serious accidents."

Col. Tilley pointed out that annually fatal accident reports show 70 or more law violations per 100 drivers involved.

"Most of the violations listed are covered by visible reminders of the law — the signs of life being stressed in this month's safety program," he said.

"Just how important signs of life are," Col. Tilley said, "perhaps can be illustrated best by example."

"Have you ever driven down a new highway before the highway department signs or lane markings and no-passing lines have been installed?" he asked.

"If so," he said, "you probably were surprised to feel a disquieting sense of insecurity."

"Most drivers feel this," he said. "When signs of life are missing they begin to realize, to some degree, just how much trust and dependence they place on these signs."

"On a hill or curve," he explained, "if there are no broken stripes on your side of the center line, your judgment must serve you instead of the engineer's care." ful measurement of visibility for safety in passing.

"This is just one of many ways in which signs of life provide both a convenience and a safeguard for motorists," he said.

Col. Tilley pointed out that the August traffic safety program sponsored by the Texas Safety Association, the Texas Department of Public Safety, and the National Safety Council features the slogan, "Know Your Signs of Life." This slogan is good advice for everyone," he said.

GIN AND GASOLINE

A Western auto dealer, while sitting around waiting for his allotment of new cars, likes to remember a certain occasion not so many years ago, when he sold two cars to the same man in one day — and made immediate delivery.

His customer was an Indian suddenly grown rich from oil which had spouted on his land.

The Indian bought a high-powered car and with a gallon of gin in the front seat, fared forth to see the world. In about an hour, he came back, bleeding and bruised, ready to buy another car.

"For Heaven's sake, what happened?" the dealer inquired.

"Down the road a piece," said the Red Man, "fences come fast. Telephone poles come fast. Soon bridge come down the road and I turn to let go by. Need new car."

BUT NOT AS BIG

A young lawyer was presenting his first case in court. It was a single damage suit of a farmer against a railroad company whose train had killed 24 of his hogs, but the young lawyer was trying to dramatize it.

"Just think, sirs, 24 hogs," he said impressively. "That's twice the number there are on the jury."

Watch Japan— New Police Law Starts New Way

By JOHN COLBY
Foreign Correspondent

TOKYO: Prime Minister Yoshida called off his trip to the United States to wage a tremendous battle to force a pet project, the Police Law Revision through the Diet (legislature). The regular session of the Diet is prescribed by law, though the session can be extended by legislative action.

The third extension of the current session was to expire at midnight June 3, and the legislature adjourned in the middle of the afternoon with instructions to reconvene at 10:15 p. m.

Socialist Dietmen, probably sincerely, felt that this law was so despotic, so typical of the police state, that they were justified in completely undemocratic tactics. Therefore, they attempted to physically keep the legislators out of the Diet Hall so that the current session, which would expire at midnight, could not be extended.

The result was a "Diet Riot." The maneuver worked, in that the Speaker of the House never did reach his chair to formally open the meeting. However, in the midst of the fighting, at a few minutes before 12, a "vote" was taken to extend the session.

Subsequent meetings were boycotted by the Socialists as being illegal, but the Police Law Revision was passed. Following this, the Socialists returned and the entire Diet joined in an apology to the people for their conduct.

Most foreign analysts and the Japanese press tend to agree with the Socialists that the Police Law can be a major step toward a Police State. Under the occupation, a police system similar to that in the United States was set up.

The new law reinstates the pre-war system under which all police in the country are under federal control. It is very much as though a branch of the Army had charge of all police work in the U. S. In pre-war Japan and Germany such a highly centralized system was the basis of thought control and the police state.

Most hopeful development was the appointment of Mitoru Eguchi as chairman of the three-man control board. A young and relatively unknown assistant secretary to the cabinet, Eguchi has been described as "the only really honest man in the government." If allowed a free hand he probably can give Japan efficient, economical police protection. However, the danger that a highly centralized police may be used for terrorist purposes is not diminished.

RUMOR BACKFIRES

SPOKANE, Wash. — In answer to numerous childish questions as to "What're ya doin', mister?" Glen Aiken, bulldozer operator, answered, "Digging for gold." The kids told their mothers, who told other mothers and soon the whole neighborhood was in a tizzy. Confronted with the rumor, Aiken laughed and said, "That was a joke for the kids, I'm helping put in a lawn."

NEWS LETTER

FROM CONGRESSMAN WALTER ROGERS
OF THE 18th CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT

Pigeons For Breakfast

As I was leaving the house for work this morning I heard quite a commotion and looked around to see Jean and the children waving me to come back. I went back in and was advised that we had an uninvited guest for breakfast. I went out at the breakfast table and there sat a live pigeon in the center of the table.

Jean told me that they were very peacefully eating when the feathered personage descended and landed smack in the center of the table. No one seemed to know where he came from or how. Time was too short for me to cross examine any of the children, but I hope to have the mystery solved by the time you get this letter.

It sometimes takes quite a bit of discussion with the children to get all the facts assembled and properly documented and coordinated, but we usually come up with a pretty clear picture as an end result. None of them have yet pleaded the Fifth Amendment on me.

After a short but fast chase, the pigeon gave up, and I gave it to the children.

Speaking of the Fifth Amendment, it occurred to me the other day that if as much attention was paid to the Fifth Amendment as paid to the Fifth Amendment, we would certainly have less juvenile delinquency, much less adult crime and conspiracy and a better world in which to live.

Water

The New Water Resources Subcommittee of the House Interior Committee commenced its work. We have had two meetings to date.

One of these was with the representatives of the departments of the executive branch, representatives of the Hoover Commission, and the Army Engineers. Every one seems to understand that we have water problems, but very little seems to have been done about it.

Few people realize that the creation and the use of mechanical devices by man has brought about demands for water far in excess of the wildest anticipation of those who were running this country at the turn of the century.

For instance, industry uses more water than agriculture. Estimates are that in 1975 industry will probably be using two-thirds of all the sweet water available in this country. The East is beginning to realize this as it sees many of its industries moving to the South. Water can certainly be counted as one of the determining factors in many of these moves. We in the Panhandle of Texas have long realized the need for water for industrial uses. If we could provide an ample water supply in our section, the industrial potentialities would be limitless.

Dr. A. L. Miller, chairman of the Committee on Interior and Insular Affairs, gave a statement recently at one of our meetings, pointing out the fact that the refining of one barrel of oil requires 770 gallons of water; 70,000 gallons of water is required for one ton of sulphate pulp, 110,000 gallons of water is required to produce one ton of rolled steel; that 300 billion gallons of water passes New Orleans in the Mississippi River every day; 319 million acre feet of stream runoff occurs annually in the United States. Somewhere between 15 and 20 percent, or 78 million acre feet of this water is developed and put to use. This means that we are wasting approximately 85% of our greatest natural resource.

Benefits for American Prisoners of War in Korea

The bill providing additional compensation benefits to more than 8500 American prisoners of war in Korea, including several hundred military and civilian personnel not yet released by their communist captors, as well as certain survivors of deceased military and civilian prisoners, will probably be law by the time you read this letter.

This is legislation that was passed in accord with the recommendations of President Eisenhower under Re-organization Plan No. 1.

The plan established the Foreign Claims Settlement Commission, which will have charge of the benefits and compensation to be paid under H. R. 9390. Those not presently detained or interned by the enemy will have one year from the date of enactment of this law within which to file their claim for benefits. If you know of anyone who could qualify under this law and who may not know about it, please tell them so that they will not run the risk of losing their claims. These claims should be filed as quickly as possible because a large backlog will soon accumulate, and the earlier ones to be filed will of course be the earlier ones to be paid.

Personal Health Problems Must Be Given Attention

AUSTIN: The question, "How do you stand?" is being asked of voters all over Texas. When Dr. Henry A. Holle, State Health Officer, asks, it has nothing to do with politics but with your own personal health. An honest answer may start you on the road to better health.

Bad posture should be corrected because it may contribute to many physical ailments. When posture is poor, internal organs are shoved out of position, forcing them to operate under stress and strain. Nerves are restricted and remain tense. One part of the body that is out of position forces another part out of line, to compensate for the off-balance. This crowds and shoves the body organs out of place so that none of them can function effectively. For example, drooped shoulders flatten the chest and crowd the lungs and heart. This forces the diaphragm down, and pushes the stomach and other organs out of place.

When the lungs are crowded, the blood stream cannot receive a sufficient supply of oxygen. Without enough oxygen, you may tire easily, have indigestion and little energy. In fact, poor posture may interfere with many body functions. It may cause some of the complaints that distress otherwise healthy men, women, and children. So you can see that your general state of health and your capacity for happy and effective living are closely tied up with body balance.

It is important for children as well as adults to maintain good posture. Good body balance is a part of good health, just as are good nutrition, cleanliness, exercise, and sufficient rest. As a part of their general education in good health habits, children should be taught good posture. And of course, because children are such imitators, parents and teachers should set them a good example. In work and play, be aware of your posture. Walk with a springy step. When you sit, sit straight—letting the back of the chair support your lower back. In sitting, standing, and walking, make yourself as straight as you can. Hold your head up, chest up, abdomen in and your spine in a straight line. This may require effort and concentration at the beginning, but if you become posture conscious, you can make good posture a habit. And, remember, an attractive, alert appearance depends upon it.

Buy, Build, Live in Canyon!

So much has been written, by so many kinds of experts, about making marriage go, that apparently all a fellow has to do these days is read a book. But, still, we do hear about a divorce now and then.

We've heard three generations of women who are making marriage work say things lately that set us to thinking about this:

A bride of two months: "Everybody said we'd have a lot of big adjustments to make when we got married, but we haven't yet. I thought before we married I couldn't possibly love Jack any more. But I do."

A woman who has passed her silver wedding anniversary: "I love my man more than I did 25 years ago. He's been kind and understanding, and as he gets older he becomes a finer man. I respect him more and more."

A woman whose husband lived for three years after their golden wedding day: "He was just right for me. He never brought me coffee in bed — wasn't very good about waiting on me when I was sick. But I didn't want that kind of man. He had a wonderful mind. Sometimes right here at home he'd make a speech that was better than any I heard anywhere else."

One once heard a man say of his own son's divorce: "Oh, it's just a case of two spoiled brats who don't know how to give and take. And maybe he's got the answer."

The bride of two months knows she is facing six years of self-denial while her husband gets a start in his profession. The middle-aged woman has held a job ever since she has been married. The older woman's life was full of hardships. But all of them learned how to give and take — and so did their men!"

During the absence of Rev. Lester Hill Sunday morning, Rev. A. B. Duncan, Jr., preached at the local Methodist Church. Rev. and Mrs. Duncan have been visiting in the home of his parents in Canyon, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Duncan, Sr., and of her parents in Borger. They returned to their charge at Roxton where he is pastor of the Methodist Church.

Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Carr of Brownfield are visiting their daughters, Mrs. Don Standley and Miss Anita Carr, who received her degree from W. T. this week.

Members of Congress Are Lined Up For Mass Attack Upon the Voters

WASHINGTON: The Republican program which emerged from this last session of Congress will be the key to the year's congressional elections. There is no dispute about this fact. Most Republican lawmakers, heading for contests in the general election, think they have a good platform to stand on.

Taxes were reduced. That is the ace in the hole. Total expenditures were reduced — and that's another talking point. Employee totals for the Federal government have also been sliced.

The Democrats think they have several issues to exploit, though, and among them are the farm program, the recession, the McCarthy issue, and the power and housing programs. The recession may be the key to Democratic victories in the fall's elections, and just about everyone is agreed on that point, too.

That's why the government's major agencies have been instructed to spend money faster. That is, instead of spreading out expenditures evenly in the next six months, or year, the agencies have been told to let as many contracts as they can — now.

Administration economists are rosy in their forecasts for the next few months and years and this lends optimism to the Republican election effort. The majority is agreed that 1955, and even the late months of this year, will be up from recent levels. No business spurt is in sight but a gradual incline is definitely expected.

The temper of the nation's farmers is an important factor to be considered in the November voting. Farmers have been getting lower prices while costs remained high and most of them apparently are in favor of high price supports. The Administration is lowering these supports.

The question is whether the Administration, the Farm Bureau, and others in favor of lower supports can carry farm areas for the Administration's candidates this fall. It may be a difficult task.

The Republican Congress did get through a program containing more meat in it than most critics had anticipated two months ago. Republican candidates definitely have some strong points to hammer home, but the deciding factor in determining control of Congress will probably be the economic trend between now and November.

The U. S. Senate squarely ducked the issue in deciding to refer the McCarthy censure vote to a committee. The election year dodge won't fool many voters but the fact that so large a majority supported the "refer-it-to-a-committee" solution makes it hard for the public to react against those who ducked a stand on the issue.

Actually, the committee investigation of McCarthy could be a farce from the start, and it certainly cannot accomplish anything in the immediate future. If the result is a split committee, divided on party lines, the subject will only become more confused in the public mind.

The question will not be resolved by the investigating committee, either, for the final decision will have to be made by the Senate itself. If the committee makes a report, for instance, then the Senate will either have to support it or reject it, or dodge the issue again.

Perhaps the election will be over when the Senate faces the issue again, however. There is a chance the Republicans won't be in control. In that case McCarthy would have lost his committee chairmanship anyhow and the committee report would have no effect on his chairmanship.

The net result is to prevent McCarthyism from becoming as much of an issue in the coming campaign as it might have been. If each Senator had been forced to take a stand on the controversial subject, the voter this fall would have known exactly where each stood. But since the vast majority voted for an investigation, all those so voting will seek to pacify both sides on the theory that this was the logical course of action.

THE CALORIE COUNT

Methuselah ate what he found on his plate.
And never, as people do now,
Did he note the amount of the calorie count;
He ate it because it was chow.
He wasn't disturbed as at dinner he sat,
Devouring a roast or a pie,
To think it was lacking in granular fat.
Or a couple of vitamins shy.
He cheerfully chewed each species of food,
Unmindful of troubles or fears
Lest his health might be hurt
By some fancy dessert;
And he lived over nine hundred years.

Lower Farm Prices Seen

By STANLEY JAMES

Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON: The Agriculture Committee of the House has just released a study which shows that "further declines in farm prices are expected." The committee study concludes that the two reasons for further price drops will be more livestock moving to market and lower price supports.

The committee, which contains a majority of Republican members, thus takes a poke at the flexible price supports program of the Administration, and Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson. Like the Senate Agriculture Committee, the House committee voted a retention of high, fixed supports.

The House, however, refused to follow the committee recommendation and passed instead a flexible support bill. The committee continued studying the problem in spite of this rebuke and finds that the consumer is failing to gain any benefits from lower prices paid the farmer.

Its study shows a trend to increased charges for marketing and processing, and this trend — the study indicates — will prevent the consumer from realizing any price benefits from further farm price drops expected. The committee study shows that farm food prices have dropped 20 percent in three years.

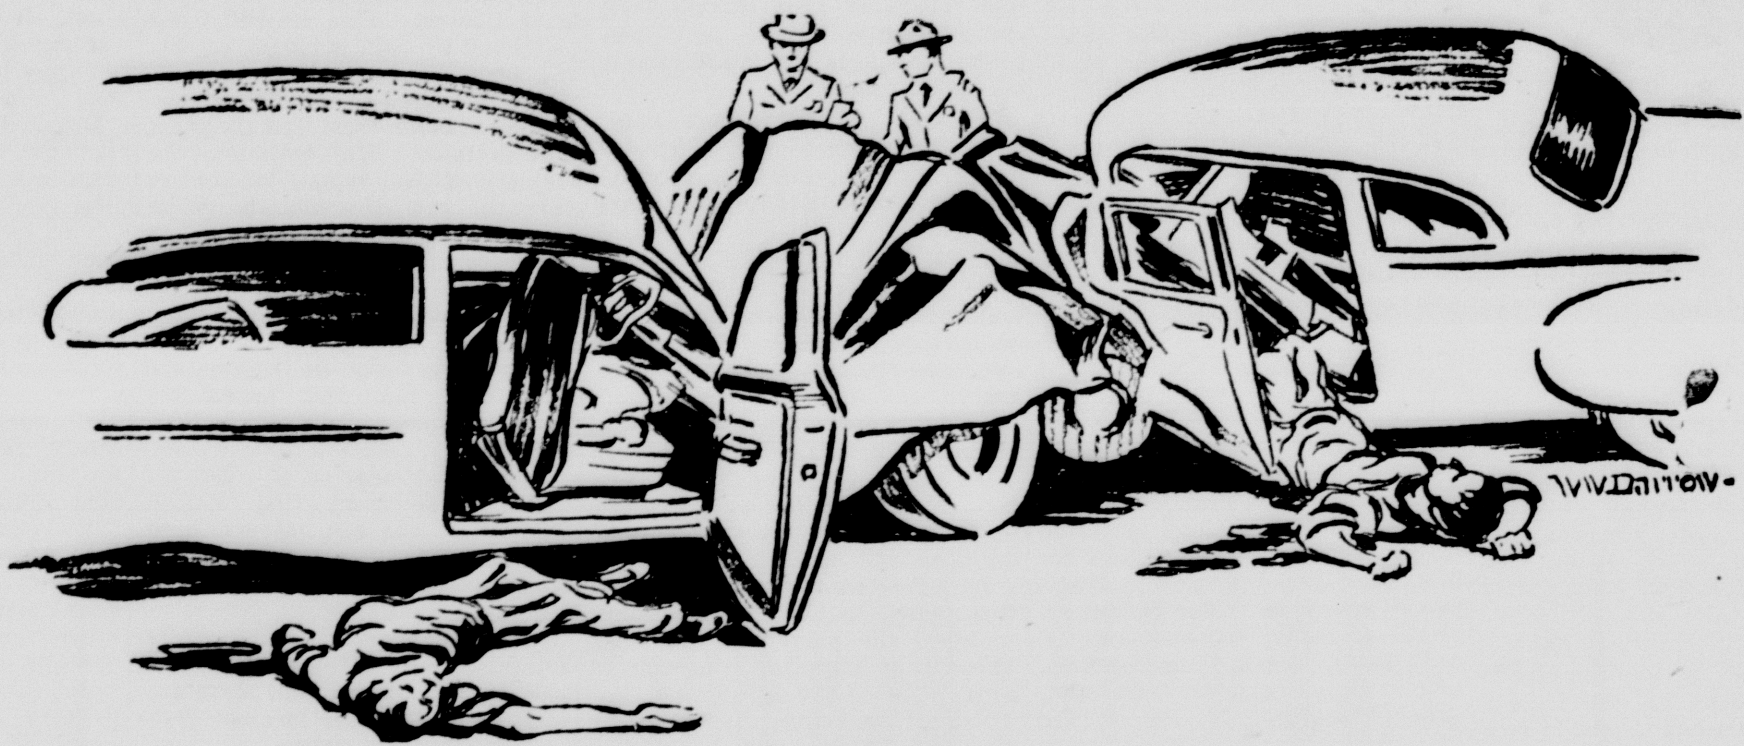

The report also found that high support prices were not the reason consumer prices have remained high — thus refuting the argument of some that high price supports have been responsible for high consumer prices.

The latest congressional study therefore stirs anew the controversial farm program and indirectly criticizes the Administration farm program. It indicates the farm program will be a hot issue in the coming election.

More than 150,000 "wetbacks" have been returned to Mexico from Southwestern border states during the two-month drive started by Washington.

The House Rules Committee virtually ended hope for statehood this year for Hawaii and Alaska by refusing to permit the House and Senate versions to go to conference.

DEADLY WEEK-ENDS

Pleasure time is no time for accidents and sudden death, but unfortunately that is when the grim specter works overtime.

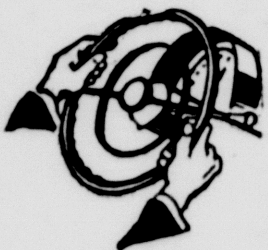

On the average week-end about 290 persons are killed and more than 13,600 injured. In a year's time, week-end and holiday casualties climb to the numbing total of 15,000 dead, 750,000 injured, or about 41 percent of all lives lost annually in traffic accidents.

With a week-end or holiday coming up, families and vacation parties swarm the roads to places of recreation, traffic is congested, driving strain increased—and then the fatal count begins.

Millions of good, bad and indifferent drivers speeding, cutting in, weaving, ignoring the rules of courtesy, challenging traffic controls, provide the lethal ingredients for crashing and killing. Add to this the potion of the drinking driver and the mixture is deadly.

When you plan week-end driving be doubly cautious. Try to avoid peak hours of travel and congested routes. Start early, return before or after the rush. Watch your driving, keep your temper, don't contest the right-of-way—and watch the other driver!

Slow down—take a little longer and bring your family home alive.

SLOW DOWN—LIVES ARE IN YOUR HANDS!

Around the Town..

(By Mrs. Clyde W. Warwick)

Mrs. Ed Harrell who is traveling in Europe sends the following very interesting letter written from Venice:

Venice is a lovely and fantastic place—and me thinking of Canyon, Texas. Our trip continues wonderful—everyone fine—seeing so many things old, a few, very few new things. Much building is going on. Everything and conditions are better than in 1950 and the things we buy are higher—our money GOES, and too they tell us wages of all kinds are better.

We do have changes—from Amsterdam below sea level to the high Alps and Switzerland—then some open country. Many beautiful lakes. Here we are again on the ocean with canal streets and gondolas for transportation. Different forms of entertainment. In Switzerland while we were having lunch in an historical old Castle, Swiss singers entertained us with three concerts in Swiss. First a singer with a Swiss hand organ, singing and yodeling. Then five girls and three men all from one family singing, another group, four men just music. This group met us four times that day and it was real entertainment. I don't see how the Swiss farm so much of the steep mountains.

On leaving Switzerland at the border we went through the longest tunnel in the world they said nine miles, then many more tunnels. I asked some of the group if they had any idea how many—I said I'd tell a good one here—and say 150—it did seem very often.

There is a bicycle for every two persons in Switzerland.

These farms all over the country raise wheat, barley, oats, alfalfa, clover, corn, potatoes, and many vegetables. The farms look like our town lots in Canyon. Many fields are the size of one half and whole blocks in Canyon. The people live in group houses and many farm houses and barns for hay and stock of all kinds are built together.

In Switzerland, of course, one main industry is cheese. We saw many Swiss milk cans and wondered if they had milking machines. We found out about 5 o'clock. Every afternoon we would see men and a few women, mostly men, milking. In places there were 15 or 20 men, in others two or three men. They had their stools made for milking with one peg in the center of the stool and with straps fastened to each side of the seat. The straps were fastened around the man so he carried the seat with him from cow to cow. They emptied the milk in big cans the same as we do for transporting to dairies. Here they take theirs to cheese factories, in two wheeled carts sometimes pulled by dogs. We saw many dogs, some horses, and some oxen.

Tomorrow we go to Florence. That is a very colorful place too and we feel like we are starting home, at least we are thinking of Canyon.

Sincerely, Mrs. Harrell.
We appreciate Mrs. Harrell taking time from her wonderful trip to write us and hope everyone enjoys her letter as much as we did.

Mrs. F. E. Nichol of Amarillo would like to have a chapter of the U.D.C. organized in Canyon before the state meeting which will be held in Amarillo this October. If there are those who would be interested in having such an organization will you please phone Mrs. Green at 4405.

Ed Gender of Sonita came Friday for a short visit with relatives and to meet Mrs. Gender, who had returned from the trip east with Dr. M. B. Measamer's conducted tour. Mr. and Mrs. Gender drove home Sunday.

Mrs. John S. Humphreys has returned from visiting with her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Shriver, of Nashville, Tenn. Mrs. Humphreys says she had a wonderful time, was on the go all the time, but was so glad to get back to Canyon, and on her return found that three Boy Scouts had given her a lovely present. The motto of the Boy Scouts is: "Do a Good Deed Every Day." and James Young, Bill Dreiss, and Eddie Pettitt, knowing Mrs. Humphreys was away from home, mowed her grass, cut the weeds and left her yard in perfect shape. The boys were supervised in their work by J. A. Young, who is the Boy Scoutmaster and the father of James. Mrs. Humphreys says it was one of the nicest things that could have been done for her and that "she would so much rather be born lucky than rich."

Mr. and Mrs. Boone McClure and Cheryl Ann are expecting Mrs. McClure's nephew and niece, Patricia Diane and Charles Patrick Boddy, to spend the winter with them. These are the children of Pat F. Boddy, who had accepted a place in the Dalhart schools before the recent death of Mrs. Boddy. Mr. Boddy hopes to be able to have his children with him soon; in the meantime the McClures are looking forward to a pleasant winter with these children. Patricia Diane is six years old and Charles Patrick is four. Mrs. McClure's mother, Mrs. C. T. Palmer of Shamrock, will bring the children to the McClures the 19th and Cheryl Ann, who is visiting with her grandparents, will return home with them.

A new three cent stamp has been issued by the U. S. Postal authorities honoring George Eastman (1854-1932), American inventor, and philanthropist, born in Waterman, N. Y. During his lifetime he played a leading role in transforming photography from an expensive hobby of a few devotees into a relatively inexpensive and immensely widespread popular pastime. He made the first roll film to prove practicable; he perfected the "Kodak" camera, the first ever designed specifically for roll film. In 1892 he established the Eastman Kodak Company, at Rochester, N. Y., one of the first firms to manufacture standardized photograph equipment on a mass-production basis. He was also one of the outstanding philanthropists of his time; he donated a total of more than $75,000,000 to various projects.

Notable among his contributions are a gift of $19,500,000 to the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, the endowment of $4,500,000 with which the Eastman School of Music was established in 1918 as a department of the University of Rochester, and the endowment of $4,000,000 with which a school of medicine and dentistry was founded at the same institution in 1921. Mr. Eastman was born a poor boy as far as finances go and amassed this huge fortune himself. His mother was left a widow with three small children and took boarders and roomers to make a living for her family.

At an early age George Eastman went to work and by the time he was 19 years old he had saved $1115.15 and it was from this beginning he amassed his fortune. He never married, devoting his life to his mother whom he adored. Thanks to Elbessa Stephenson and Mrs. Chester Pierle for helping with this material.

Polka Dot Meringues
You'll need: Three egg whites, ¼ teaspoon cream of tartar, ¼ teaspoon salt, ¼ cup of sugar, ½ package semisweet chocolate dots. Beat egg whites until foamy, add cream of tartar and salt; beat until stiff but not dry. Add sugar gradually, beating until very stiff. Fold in one teaspoon of vinegar and ¼ package of semisweet chocolate morsels. Grease baking sheet well. For individual or large meringue shells, pile the meringue in six rounds, three inches in diameter, or one large round nine inches in diameter. Make a depression in the center of the large one, leaving one inch around the sides. Sprinkle with remaining morsels. For meringuettes drop by tablespoon onto baking sheet. Sprinkle with remaining chocolate morsels. Bake in a very slow oven, 275 degrees for 40 minutes for meringuettes, 50 minutes for individual shells, one hour for large shell. This recipe will make one large shell, three dozen meringuettes (tiny bite sized cookies) or six individual shells. Serve with vanilla ice cream and heavenly hot-fudge sauce.

It takes just ten minutes to stir this up with a Mixer; be sure to beat very stiff and the meringuettes are better the next day than the day you make them if placed in a covered dish.

Miss Joyce Hill, who has spent the last two years in Cuba, is visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Hill, and with friends over the Panhandle. Joyce received her B.A. in English at WTSC going from here to Scarritt College in Nashville, Tenn., for a year's work of specialized study in the field of Latin American countries, from there she went to Havana, Cuba, where she spent her first year studying the Spanish language and as a worker at the Methodist University of Havana Student Center.

The last year she has spent as a Methodist Educational Missionary at Colegio Pinson, Camaguey, an inland city of 150,000 people. This school is operated by the Division of World Missions of the Board of Missions of the Methodist Church. Camaguey is one of the oldest cities in Cuba, established in 1515. When Joyce returns in September she will teach at Cienfuegos, a city of 75,000 on the south coast of Cuba. Joyce said it was hardly ever they had a hurricane at Camaguey, but they did have them at Cienfuegos.

Joyce says schools are badly needed in Cuba, that only about half of the children go to school because there are not enough schools for them to attend. She says the children are just about like American children except not as well behaved, due to a national law that says children can be only mildly disciplined even by their parents. The worst punishment you can give a child is to send it out of the room to stand in the hall and, that after the child has been punished this way a few times it will leave school and will not return.

Joyce says the climate of Cuba is lovely, never below 60 degrees or above 90 degrees. That there is no need of heating, that if you are chilly you just put on a sweater, that the homes do not have air-conditioning, but that a few of the large stores are putting in air-conditioning. The main crops are sugar cane and tobacco, nearly everything will grow there, the average rainfall being 50 inches.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Breitling have had as their guests the last ten days Mrs. Breitling's sister, Mrs. John Bruno, of Jacksonville and her two nieces, Mrs. Estelle Freeman and Mrs. Edna Jones, both of Tyler.

Mrs. Al Vigne, who underwent major surgery last week, left Neb-leth Hospital Thursday. She is recovering nicely and will remain with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Felix Pierce, until well enough to return to her home in St. Louis. Mr. Vigne came to be with his wife until she was out of danger. He will come for Mrs. Vigne and their daughter as soon as Mrs. Vigne is able to make the trip home.

Mrs. T. S. Stevenson, Jr., underwent major bone surgery at Northwest Texas Hospital in Amarillo last week and is doing better than expected. Mr. Stevenson says she does not know when she can come home yet, but it will not be as long as they first expected.

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. West of Oklahoma City spent Thursday and Friday visiting with Mrs. West's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Loudder and family.

Douglas, who stays with Mrs. Sternberg, will take her vacation while the Batchelders are here, going to Albuquerque, Carlsbad, and Salt Lake City to visit with her two daughters and her son.

E. J. Larson returned Friday from a week's visit in Lincoln, Neb., and Mr. and Mrs. Larson and daughter, Velma Lynn, left Saturday to visit with Mrs. Larson's son, who is with the Air Force in San Antonio.

The mocking-bird that built its nest between the Barker and Brasher homes is still scolding and chasing the cat. The children in the neighborhood are worrying for fear the bird will get too confident, lose its caution, and the cat will catch it.

The new Tangerine Sherbet put up by Lane's is certainly good and it is put up in a plastic container that can be used for food you put in your freezer.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Britt are building a new home at 2519 6th Ave. It will be a nine room house finished with vertical lumber, stone and brick.

If you want to live to be 100 or more, keep active even if you retire, don't move to a milder climate, maintain a healthy interest in the opposite sex, and don't become indolent and take to your bed during the daytime. These were the findings of an international longevity conference meeting in London. Strangely enough, according to the study, more U. S. centenarians live in the Northwest and Midwest than in California or Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. Shafer, of Knox City, Texas, visited their daughter and her family, Mr. and Mrs. Tommie Lair.

The American Safety Razor Corp. decided to move operations from Brooklyn to Staunton, Va. It had just bought an idle plant of the Celanese Corp. of America. But instead of moving at once it deferred moving to May 17, 1955, to give its 800 employees time to decide whether they want to go along and, if not, to find other jobs. The company also supplied employees with complete dossiers on Staunton—data on churches, schools, and hospitals, etc.—to help them to make up their minds. Set up a committee to find jobs for those who elect to stay in Brooklyn. Promised severance pay, ranging from one to one and half week's pay for each year with the company, to those staying behind. Established a pension plan for employees 65 years old or older who prefer not to move. This from one of the Capitalist that Russia paints as such villains. It is safe to say Russian people will never hear of this.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Hunnicutt who moved to their new home on Fourth Avenue and being of an enterprising nature put out a garden the first thing. The other day Lawrence gave me some of the onions they raised, saying that he supposed because they raised them they were just better than any onions he had ever eaten and they were good. There is no doubt that vegetables fresh from your own garden are better.

And that reminds me the Dallas News this last week featured a Mrs. W. S. Harber who planted watermelon vines in the bed with roses and zinnias. They didn't take over but formed a mulch for the roses, protecting them from the sun's heat. She planted the little icebox watermelon, about the size of a cantaloupe. She has harvested 15 of these melons so far and the vines have many more melons and blooms. I am going to try that next year.

"Do all things without murmurings and disruptions: That ye may be blameless and harmless, the sons of God, without rebuke, in the midst of a crooked and perverse nation, among whom ye shine as lights in the world."—Philippians 2:14-15.

"What are your daughters studying now?"
"Nothing," replied Mr. Cumrox.
"They have learnt all about music, painting, and literature. All they're got left to learn is not to bother people with them."

The secret of popularity lies in the ability to enjoy being bored.

A seven-year-old girl submitted the following composition on "People" to her teacher: "People are composed of boys and girls, also men and women. Boys are no good at all until they grow up and get married. Men who don't get married are no good either. Boys are an awful bother. They want everything they see except soap. My ma is a woman and my pa is a man. A woman is a grown up girl with children. My pa is such a nice man that sometimes I think he must have been a girl when he was a boy."

Unselfish and noble acts are the most radiant epochs in the biography of souls. —Thoreau
